ROOTERS MET LAST NIGHT FOR PRACTICE

"Shag" Shaughnessy Gave Some Advice

MR. McMASTER ON BATTALION

His Words Received With Enthusiasm

This is the best Rooters' Club I have seen at McGill, said Shag Shaughnessy, to the Rooters' Club last evening.
Over 400 enthusiastic followers of the football team were out to give the cheers, and it was with great enthusiasm that they greeted McGill coach as he went onto the platform and outlined the many ways in which the rooters can help the team. He imparted a little advice.
"McGill's team," he said, "are given clear instructions before going on the field to play a clean, fair game. You do your part. Sometimes the referee's decisions may seem a little close, but you play square. Hissing the referee will not do you any good, and is poor sportsmanship. We are starting out with the hardest game ahead of us, the team are sure they will win, but you fellows are needed behind the team to help them play as they should. There are no teams like those of the colleges, but it needs a college spirit to make them play their hardest."

ENROLLMENT IS BELOW THAT OF PREVIOUS YEAR

Figures Show a Large Decrease
In Faculty of Science—Loss
Also In Arts

The registration figures, which have just been given out, show a large decrease in the number of students registered in the various faculties, that of Applied Science having the largest decrease. This was caused on account of many of the men departing to the front.
Last year there were registered in Arts 510, in Applied Science 612, in Law 76, and Medicine 377. This year there were registered in Arts 419, in Applied Science 120, in Medicine 5, and in Law 5. The complete figures for this year are as follows:—

comers

SHE SPOKE ON THE RED CROSS

A Class To Be Formed

The first meeting of the Undergraduate Society of the R. V. C. for this session was held yesterday (Friday), with the president, Miss Zoe Smith, in the chair.

The meeting opened with a short address by Miss Hurlbatt, who, after welcoming the newcomers in our midst, spoke briefly on the question of Red Cross work, and of the value of a course in First Aid to the Injured.

Miss Margaret Cameron was unanimously chosen as the new secretary-treasurer of the society.

The next business was the election of a Reading Room Committee as follows:—Miss Demuth, '15; Miss Bollett,
'15; Miss Douglas, '16; Miss Muir, '17;
and Miss S. Cameron, '17.

In connection with the Red Cross work which is to be undertaken by the students, Miss Olga McCallum was elected secretary.

The final election was that of a secretary to look after the question of forming a class in First Aid at the R.
V. C., and resulted in the choice of Miss Grace Macdonald.

Dr. Colby Appears for the First Time Since 1910 as Head of History

The Political and Diplomatic History of Modern Europe

For the first time in five years, Dr.
Colby, head of the Department of History, made his appearance in the Faculty of Arts. He has arranged to give a half course to the Third and Fourth years covering the Political and Diplomatic History of Modern Europe from 1815 to 1914.

(We regret that this part of the article was left out of yesterday's issue by mistake.)

Proceeding with the title of his first lecture, the "Precepts of Machiavelli," Dr. Colby proved how Machiavelli was the starting point of Diplomatic and International politics. The definition of an ambassador in the past has been that of a polite liar, while the popular opinion to-day of a diplomat is "one who lies abroad for his country." In the past there were three kinds of diplomats, private, public and foreign, capable of being twisted into the shape which circumstances required. Machiavelli's formula was to put country before self. "Success is the test."
"There are no crimes in politics." "The man of action is essentially conscienceless." "Praise be to those who love their country rather than their souls."
"Let us be Venetians first, Christians after," are all Machiavelli's maxims, which give a true version of his public ethics.

In spite of the fact that nearly 400 years have passed, there has always been a strong tendency to incorporate the Machiavellian doctrine into the politics of Europe. Take for example the Prussian violations of the treaties in 1813 imposed by Napoleon after Jena. Yet much improvement in the morals of politics has been made in recent years. The industrial revolution has had an influence in extending to politics the same code of morals as exists in private life, and as a nation we are brought up to feel it a disgrace even to be successful by falsehood, while diplomacy is conscious of having a character to keep up for truth and plain dealing so far as circumstances allow.

Machiavelli was born in 1469 of a very poor family, with no advantages in his youth, yet at the age of 29 he became Foreign Minister to the Republic of Florence. From 1498 to 1512 he made numerous visits, and was in personal communication with the important sovereigns and ministers of Europe. He was a watchful observer of their methods and motives, while his active life was spent in council chambers, camps and courts. He lived in an atmosphere of craft and suspicion, fraud and violence, with Borgias, Medici, Pope Julius, Maximilian, and Louis XII, together with the immoral and corrupt factions of Florence itself.
It was this one side of life he understood, and on which he based his writings.

His fame as a writer rests upon two books. His "Discourses" and "The Prince." The latter being a classic treatise, in the 18th chapter of which he discusses how states should be formed, governed and maintained.

These works made him famous. Elizabethans knew him. Thomas Cromwell told Cardinal Pole that he had better fling aside dreamers like Plato and read a new book by an ingenious Italian, that treated the arts of government practically. Even Bacon wrote:
"We are much beholden to Machiavelli and others, that wrote what men do, and not what they ought to do."

The lecturer pointed out the Machiavellian influence in the present war.
The sack of Louvain and the bombardment of Rheims are acts which would fall within the ethics of Machiavelli.
Perhaps the most striking statement of the whole discourse was uttered when Dr. Colby finished his lecture by declaring: "That Germany is under as great a temptation to adopt Machiavellian methods as any country has ever been in the whole history of the world."

The voice of England against the neutrality of Belgium has been the strongest voice ever raised against the Machiavellian method.

ALL HAVE THE TIME

When the question of forming a battalion was taken up by the Graduates' Society and the Students' Council, there arose a discussion as to the advisability of cutting out all college athletics, in order to allow every student the time and opportunity to drill. Arguments were quoted from people interested, how athletics, especially football, would take away a great number of men from the drill, and that the interest in that sport would have a great tendency to obliterate military drill. Last night the entire football squad enlisted, clearly proving that it would have been a very grave error to abandon any kind of sport.

From these facts we are able to draw conclusions. If the men on the football squad, whose arduous duties, no one can deny; if the professors from every faculty in the University, and if the most active students around college, can find time and will take the trouble to join our regiment, can we accept any plea, such as "no time," "too busy" or "too much trouble" as logical excuses for not helping to make our regiment numerically equal to the entire registration of the University?

FIRST AID

It is always advantageous to be qualified to render First Aid—but how tremendously important it is to possess this knowledge now!

With increasing opportunities for professional life it is not desirable that all women should be nurses—but never in the history of the world has it been so necessary for them to understand First Aid. In view of this, the Royal Victoria College students are organizing a First Aid Course in connection with the Red Cross Society under Dr. F. Tees. The splendid self-sacrificing example of the Faculty and men students—training to be prepared to defend Canada if necessary—has blazed a trail for the woman students to follow. All will be eager to rally round the Red X standard, and equip themselves to do a woman's part in the defence and aid of the Empire.

RESIGNS

Mr. Eric A. Leslie,
Editor-in-Chief McGill Daily.
Dear Sir:—

Owing to the enormous pressure of my work this session both in my course in Medicine and in several activities of various natures which I have undertaken, I regret to say that I have found it impossible to continue in the capacity of Dramatic Editor, and hereby tender my resignation.

If at any future time I can be of any assistance to you in any capacity whatsoever, I should be greatly pleased if you would call on me.

With every wish for your success and for that of the paper which has been very dear to me ever since its inception, I am, Sir,

Yours very truly,
ALTON GOLDBLOOM.

It is with great regret that we have been obliged to accept Mr. Alton Goldbloom's resignation as Dramatic Critic. Ever since the Daily started he has been actively connected with it and readers, we feel sure, will miss his able and apt criticisms of the plays at His Majesty's. We are sorry that other duties have made it necessary to give up the important tasks which were his lot.

McGill Twenty-Four Months Ago

From The McGill Daily of Thursday, October 10th, 1912

The Rooters' Club is at last in full swing. Yesterday afternoon in the Strathcona Hall more than three hundred men turned out to the practice, and sang the songs and yelled the yells with more spirit and energy than has been shown at any practice heretofore. With the McGill-Queen's game only three days off, it will be necessary for all men who anticipate joining to get on deck for practice.

Professor Stephen Leacock's new book entitled "Sunshine Sketches of a Little Town," shows an exuberance of wit, with hardly an interval for sober reflection which is characteristic of the author's style in his previous two books, "Literary Lapses," and "Non-sense Novels."

This afternoon saw the full squad out at practice. All the cripples were out, and Coach Shaughnessy made the men go the pace for a steady two hours. Two 50-yard runs by George Laing, through practically the whole second team. George is playing a wonderful game this year, and is in the pink of condition.

ROBBED STUDENT OF SUMMER'S SAVINGS

M. Murato, a Japanese student working his way through the University of Illinois, was robbed in the gymnasium recently of $70, the savings of an entire summer. Murato had intended to use the money to cover expenses in entering the University, and then hoped to find employment netting him sufficient to meet expenses during the year.

The money was taken from the youth's clothes, which were in a locker while Murato was in the swimming pool. A padlock was broken by the thief in order to gain entrance. Murato arrived in this country from Japan last summer practically penniless. He worked in a St. Louis restaurant as cook until the University opened. Unaccustomed to the ways of his new country he neglected depositing the savings in a bank. Murato has been temporarily employed at the home of Professor Garner.

"A FRESHMAN SHALL NOT GO WITH A GIRL."

The Freshman is apt to take umbrage and sneer at the words when I quote "That a woman is always a woman But a good cigar is a smoke." But listen, O friend, to the passage, "Wherein doth Josephine assert 'That woman's the child of the ages But Freshmen, developed from dirt.'"

When first the fire mist gathered In a volatile nebular band, And water derived out of chaos Combined with the smoke to form land.

Rooters' Songs

CUT THEM OUT FOR THE GAME

I.

HAIL! ALMA MATER.

Hail! Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise;
Great our affection, tho' feeble our lays.
Nestling so peaceful and calm 'neath the hill;
Fondly we love thee, our dear old McGill.

Hail! Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise;
Loud in thy honor, our voices we raise.
Full to thy fortune our glasses we fill;
Life and prosperity, dear old McGill.

Hail! Alma Mater, thy praises we sing;
Far down the centuries still may they ring;
Long thro' the ages remain, if God will—
Queen of the colleges, dear old McGill.

II.

TO THE TUNE OF TAMMANY.

James McGill! James McGill!
Peacefully he slumbers there,
Blissful though we're on a "tear,"
James McGill! James McGill!
He's our father, well yes, rather,
James McGill!

III.

William C. William C.
He doth make our College run,
Giving William P. the "Mon."
William C. William C.
Ain't it funny, so much money,
William C.!

IV.

Old McGill, Old McGill,
Varsity go to the game,
R. M. C. and Queen's as well
Old McGill, Old McGill,
Race them, chase them. Race them,
Chase them, Old McGill.

V.

TUNE: IT'S A LONG, LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY.

It's a big day for Old McGill, boys,
It's a big day to-day,
Because we're got to beat Toronto
That's what all the fellows say.
Well cheer for Old McGill, boys
'Cause our hearts are all so gay.
Yes, it's hard, hard luck for old Toronto,
Bue we'll win to-day.

VII.

TO THE TUNE OF TIPPERARY.

So it's good-bye to old Toronto,
And it's farewell to Queen's,
We are sorry we've got to trim you,
But the championship it means.
Shag only turns out winners,
Since he a bear,
And the whole team is made up of lions,
And we are right there.

VIII.

TO THE TUNE OF "D. DO AS MUCH FOR YOU."

Rah—we're going to win to-day, boys,
Rah—we couldn't lose to-day, boys,
Rah—we've got the team to do it,
Watch them take the ball down the field.
Buck it over fellows,
Rah—McGill is always leading,
Rah—we're on our way,
We are always grinning,
For we're always winning,
Rah, Rah, we're going to win to-day.

XI.

(TUNE MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA.)

Now our team is on the field, every nerve and muscle steered,
And determined that they'll win or die to-day,
See those fellows sure and strong,
Ready all the line along,
Varsity will have to break and fade away.

Chorus:
Cheer them, cheer for Old McGill, boys,
Raise your voices in a song,
We must beat them on the play, for we're out to win to-day,
And the team in Red and White will move along.
When the ball is put in play just you watch us break away,
And the team at once go marching down the field,
Varsity will fight in vain, tho' they try with might and main,
And their goal to us they'll surely have to yield.

Chorus:
Cheer, then, cheer, etc.

X.

RULE BRITANNIA.

When Britain first at Heaven's command,
Arose from out the azure main,
This was the charter, the charter of the land,
And guardian angels sang this strain:

Chorus:
Rule Britannia, Britannia rules the waves,
Britons never, never, shall be slaves.
Rule Britannia, Britannia rules the waves,
Britons never, never, shall be slaves.

XII.

TUNE—"EVERYBODY TWO-STEP," CHORUS.

Everybody turn out and yell for Old McGill,
Everybody turn out and join the rooting drill,
Give your yell with all your might,
Everybody turn out and turn out right,
If you want to turn out, don't think you shouldn't dare,
Everybody does it—Nobody ought to care,
Everybody wiggle, waggle—then you start a row. Everybody turn out now.

XIII.

TUNE, "WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH FATHER?"

What's the matter with George Laing? he's all right,
What's the matter with Jeffrey? he's all right,
Now all you fellows from Old McGill,
Cheer that team till their hearts do thrill,
What's the matter with our team? they're all right.

XIV.

MCGILL YELL.

We're out for gore,
We're out for gore,
Keep her low,
Keep her low,
Let her go
M-C-G-I-L-L-L-L.
What's the matter with old McGill?
She's all right. Oh, yes, you bet.
McGill, McGill, McGill!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
McGill.

The Annual General Meeting of the shareholders of The Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, Limited, was held at the head office of the Company in Montreal on 8th October, 1914. Mr. C. R. Hosmer, President, in the Chair.

Among those present were: Mr. C. R. Hosmer, Mr. W. A. Black, Sir Montagu Allan, C.V.O., Mr. H. S. Holt, Mr. A. M. Nanton, Mr. W. R. Baker, Mr. Shirley Ogilvie, Mr. C. R. Black, Mr. George E. Drummond, Mr. W. H. Evans, Mr. Charles Chaput, Mr. G. M. Heath, Mr. W. P. Fogarty, Mr. S. A. McMurtry, treasurer; Mr. G. A. Morris, secretary.

The President submitted the following report and moved its adoption: A Balance Sheet showing the Assets and Liabilities of the Company, also profits for the year, is submitted.

The Company's accounts have been audited by Messrs. Creak, Cushing and Hodgson, Chartered Accountants, whose report is presented herewith.

The issue of $600,000 six per cent. First Mortgage Bonds, which were known as Series "C," the proceeds of which were used towards the cost of the Medicine Hat flour mills and elevators, were disposed of during the current year.

The Company's flour mill and elevators at Medicine Hat have been in successful operation during the year, and are proving to be a wise investment both as regards profits and for the protection of the Company's Western and Pacific business.

The Company's flour mills, elevators and other properties are in first class condition. Most liberal expenditures are constantly being made to keep them up to the most modern standard of efficiency.

The usual dividends have been paid during the year on the Preferred and Common Stock.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed), CHAS. R. HOSMER, President.

October 8th, 1914.

Mr. W. A. Black, Vice-President and Managing Director, in speaking of the report, said:—

If we except the month of August, when the War started, conditions have been normal, sales in the domestic and export markets being quiet up to the average, notwithstanding increased competition; and you will note a substantial margin over dividends and fixed charges has resulted.

During the year all our plants have been carefully gone over, and the cost of all renewals and upkeep has been written off as usual against earnings.

While the harvest in our Northwest has not resulted in as large a crop as the preceding year, the quality in the main is satisfactory, and the total monetary return should equal, if not exceed, that of last year. Some considerable area suffered very severely from drought and heat, but the Dominion Government has taken the matter in hand, and are furnishing feed where necessary to enable those requiring assistance to prepare the land this fall and seed for Spring sowing. It is to be hoped that the farmers will make the most of the present opportunity to put under seed the greatest possible area, for owing to the war the demand for grains of all kinds will be very great from this side of the Atlantic, and prices are likely to remain on a high level for at least another crop year. Our recent advices from the West indicate that this policy is being carried out by our farmers, and favorable weather has prevailed for fall ploughing.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors of the Company for the ensuing year:

Sir Montagu Allan, C.V.O., Mr. W. A. Black, Mr. Charles Chaput, Mr. George E. Drummond, Mr. C. B. Gordon, Mr. H. S. Holt, Mr. C. R. Hosmer, Mr. A. M. Nanton, Mr. Shirley Ogilvie.

And Messrs. Creak, Cushing and Hodgson were appointed Auditors.

At a subsequent meeting of Directors the following officers were appointed: Mr. C. R. Hosmer, president; Mr. W. A. Black, vice-president, and managing director; Mr. S. A. McMurtry, treasurer; Mr. G. Alfred Morris, secretary; Mr. J. R. W. Papeau, assistant secretary.

Mr. A. R. McMaster, K.C., was another speaker who spoke on the desirability of all McGill men enlisting in the McGill Battalion. He spoke with enthusiasm and force on this question, and the sentiments he expressed were greeted with rounds of applause from the students.

About 350 students were out, and Frank Connors put them through their drills in fine style. Never before in the history of the Rooters' Club have the songs been rendered with so much "pep" and vigor. Plans have been carefully thought out and everything pointed to a splendid auxiliary organization at the match.

The rooters are to meet for formation at 2.10 p.m. on Victoria street just below Sherbrooke, beside the McGill Union.

ten lieutenants, who will bear white badges on their left arm. These men are to look after the forming of the procession, and the rooters will make a very important contribution to the success of the whole programme by complying with the requests of these lieutenants as quietly and quickly as possible.

The parade will start from the Union at 2.40 p.m., the previous 30 minutes having been spent in preliminary drill on Victoria street.

The procession will be headed by the McGill Rooters' Band, under the direction of Charlie Gibbs, the football squad, headed by Captain Paisley, Coach Shaughnessy and Manager Hall, will be followed by the members of the Rooters' Club, marching four abreast. The front ranks of the latter division will contain those men who are to form the red part of the big "M" in the bleachers. Following them will be the boys who will constitute the white background. Those taking part in the formation of the "M" include over 100 men, who were thoroughly drilled last evening on the campus. Each man was allotted to a particular seat, which he will take this afternoon. On entering the grounds at the city gate the man on the right hand side of each rank will present the tickets for his line, retaining one half of the ticket. Marching onto the campus on the southeastern corner, they will proceed along the eastern touch

OUR WOOLTON

We have gone to a great deal of trouble to get a suit around $10.00 with up-to-date lines. We eventually solved the problem in our WOOLTON. It is not made of as good cloth as some of our more expensive suits, but it has identically the same tailoring and cut, thus giving you a up-to-the-minute suit, with stylish lines, for $9.75, the only difference being in the cloth. We could sell this suit for less if it were not the best of workmanship, but we think it better to pay a little extra and get the best workmanship.

It is made with a rolling 1 1/2 inch lapel, to either button with one, two or three buttons. The lapel is 3 1/2 inches wide, with a two-inch notch.

The coat is three inches less than half the wearer's height, with a centre vent. The trousers are made on English lines, and the vest is made to button high. Every care has been put into this suit. Indeed it would be impossible to select this suit from among our high priced goods.

THE COLONIAL

The Colonial this week-end have a most interesting and delightful programme for their patrons.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will be shown "Temptation," a three-part subject dealing with a village girl's life in the city's toils, and the tale of a big conspiracy, telling of the abortive means taken to obtain the secret plans of a torpedo from the inventor, who is eventually saved by the village girl. This photo-drama is full of exciting incidents. In addition, they present other short, snappy dramas, and the very best of comedies, namely, the Keystone's.

Following the order of half, they will be given the command right turn and halt, and render the first verse of Rule Britannia. The rooters will turn and march to the section which has been reserved for them. Here they will be halted until the big "M" is formed, and the band takes its position before they will take their respective seats. Ample accommodation has been reserved, and no member of the club need fear that he will be without a good seat. It is hoped that the men will wait until the "M" is formed, as by so doing everything should be run off without a hitch.

SPORTS WILL TAKE PLACE NEXT MONDAY

Final Preparations Being Made For Freshman-Sophomore Sports

MANY SURPRISES ARE EXPECTED

Announcements of Progress of The Game At Ottawa Will Be a Feature

The final touches to the preparations for the Freshman-Sophomore meet were given yesterday, some men working out at the M.A.A.A. grounds, but the majority on the campus. The participants, a list of whom was printed in yesterday's issue of the Daily, were nearly all out, the work done being chiefly of a very light nature. The rivalry between the two teams is very keen this year, and as this is the first time that the Freshmen clash with the lordly Sophomores, one of the most successful meets yet held will undoubtedly come off on Monday.

The executive have arranged for a competent set of officials, the majority of whom are students, to see that the events are run off without any unnecessary delay. Dr. MacMillan, who has officiated in the capacity of starter for several years, will, unfortunately, be out of town. In his absence Tom Graydon will probably look after this important duty, and in so doing will doubtless be able to pick out any weak points of the different men in the start.

There have been numerous forecasts as to the probable results in the different events, but these are highly problematical. Some of the men are, of course, sure to live up to their pretensions, but among the hitherto unknown athletes are several who are going in to win, and as these men have little respect for last year's champions and their records, the various calculations are liable to be badly upset.

The Committee of the Union made arrangements some time ago for a special wine from Ottawa, with a running account of the game there. As this would, to a certain extent, clash with the sports, the management of the Track Club have arranged with Mr. O'Leary, the President of the Union, to have the report read out on campus. There is but little doubt that this change will be made, so that these in the stand will be able to follow both branches of the college's Thanksgiving Day activities.

The games will commence at 2:15, the grounds and stand being free to all. This being the case, it is hoped all will buy a programme, which will enable them to take a keener interest in the various competitions.

THIRD TEAM PLAY IN ST. LAMBERT'S THIS AFTERNOON

Date Could Not Be Changed to Avoid Clash With Varsity Game

This afternoon the McGill third football team will journey across the river to St. Lambert's, where they will meet the home team in a Junior Quebec Rugby Union match. The football executive, and especially Capt. Hall, of the third team, exerted great efforts to have this game postponed, but all their attempts met with failure. It is unfortunate that this date should clash with that of the big game, but it is unavoidable. McGill is sending over a strong fourteen to line-up against the South-esters. The men are requested to be at the Union at 1:15 p.m. sharp, as the match is called for three o'clock, and it is quite a trip from the Union to the St. Lambert grounds. The following men are requested to be on hand at the above mentioned hour:

Flying wing ..... T. Hall

Back ..... MacKay

McGILL AND TORONTO INAUGURATE FOOTBALL SEASON HERE TO-DAY

Old Rivals on Edge For Opening Encounter of Intercollegiate Schedule—Toronto Team Arrived In Montreal Yesterday Afternoon

STRENGTH OF BLUE AND WHITE IS UNKNOWN

Varsity Lineup Almost Completely Changed Since Last Season — McGill Fairly Strong But May Get Surprise

The football squad went through its final workout on the campus yesterday afternoon preparatory to the big game with Toronto to-day. Coach Shaughnessy, giving the men a comparatively light drill in order to avoid all chance of an injury to one of the players.

As a result of the rains of the past few days, the field, which has been as today's game will be the first real test for most of their players, the showing which they will make against last season's champions is exceedingly problematical. Charlie Gage, who is captaining the Blue and White this year, is slated to play outside wing, a position which he used to play in the early days of football at Toronto, and it is said that his work has lost none of its old time finish. Besides being a player of great ability, Gage is one of the best generals which the Varsity outfit has had in many seasons, and this will be no small factor in the play of a team as lacking in experience as is the one which will represent Toronto to-day.

The Varsity team arrived yesterday and put up at the Queen's Hotel, a large squad of players being taken along. They will have the advantage of a good night's rest, and should go on the field in as good condition as McGill. Not many supporters accompanied the Toronto fourteen yesterday, but a number are expected to arrive this morning. It is very doubtful if this game will witness the same amount of betting as is usually the case when these two teams meet, principally because of the unknown ability of the Varsity team, but partly on account of the hard times which have considerably depleted the average student's bank-roll. The probability is, however, all in favor of McGill, and unless the Queen City students have been living low, the Red and White should start the season with a win to-day.

Although the snowing of the McGill team was not very satisfactory in their practice match with the Montreal outfit on Wednesday, the encounter brought out several faults which have since been worked upon by Shaughnessy, with results which should be apparent in the game to-day. The squad has been working very well in the practices for this time of year, and although some of the men have not yet mastered the signals perfectly, the plays have been executed with greater precision every day. The squad has practised, and a great improvement in this direction may be looked for to-day. The back division, with Jeffrey Lalng and Paisley in line, looks good enough to hold any line which Varsity may start, and unless something goes radically wrong, that department of the team should not cause the fans any anxious moments. All three are good kickers, and notwithstanding the fact that their spurs do not travel more than forty or fifty yards, they seldom miss, and are always high enough to allow the wings to get well down under them.

At quarter, McGill, with Montgomery leading the signals, is strong enough, and should Monty be forced to retire, as he almost was in the final game at Toronto last year, Jeffrey, who has also been coached for the position, can take his place without seriously weakening the team. Rodden and Kennedy, who will probably start at outside wings, are likely to be watched carefully by the fans to-day, as this will be their first appearance in a McGill uniform in an intercollegiate struggle. Both played for Queen's last season, and came here with big reputations, their showing in the two practices with the Montreal fourteen being some indication of what may be expected of them. Kennedy has plenty of speed, but is sometimes weak in his tackling, while Rodden is accustomed to playing the middle wing position, and may take some time to become used to the outside station. He has been bothered lately by a sore leg, and should be fit to last will probably be replaced by Ross Lang, whose performance to date have been satisfactory.

At flying wing, McGill has Quilty, a veteran of many years' experience, who has received the benefit of coaching at the hands of Father Stanton and Shaughnessy, two of the finest coaches that ever turned out winning teams, and although he has not as yet become accustomed to the new style of play in vogue here, he ought to give

YALE DEVELOPING OPEN FORMATIONS

American Sporting Writer Describes Elis' Methods of Attack in Game

Open play is the order of the day at Yale as well as at Princeton this fall, and it appears that the latter will not be the only team on the field which uses the open formations when they play Yale on November 14. As a commentary on this, the following article is quoted from an American newspaper, describing the playing of the New Haven eleven in the Virginia game last Saturday.

"The game was played upon a wider plane than any contest I have ever seen between two Eastern college elevens. . . . The open attack of the Elis may be catalogued as follows: The quarter-back, running with the ball along the line of scrimmage, toward the right or left wings, and then hurrying the oval five or six yards toward the side-lines to a back who had got outside the line of defense. The quarter-back, halfbacks, or fullback, running a lateral course toward the side-line and passing the ball, just as he was about to be tackled, to a man who had been following in his steps almost within touching distance. The back taking the ball and dashing upon the right centre of the line, but surrendering the leather before hitting the line to a fellow-back, who thereupon plunges through the left centre, or vice versa, and dashing past in which the platoon goes from the quarter to a half, who in turn passes to Ledore at full, who is planted for a long throw down the field to either right or left end.

Those named for office this year are: Dr. Todd, hon. president; H. B. McEwen, president; S. G. Baldwin, vice-president; J. C. Atfield, secretary-treasurer; E. M. Des Brisay, and E. Yeo, assistant secretaries.

The committee for the session are: A. R. Gordon, Manitoba; J. D. Robinson, Saskatchewan; S. Allen, Alberta; G. W. Bissett, British Columbia.

The year '16 will be acquainted from time to time with the doings and needs of the executive, who desire the hearty support and co-operation of all in order to achieve a successful result.

MEETING OF 1916 BOARD

To Consider Plans for the Coming Edition of the McGill Annual

The Editorial Board of the 1916 Annual met Thursday at 8 p.m. to consider plans for the coming edition. Much valuable information was given by Mr. Scriver, last year's Editor-in-Chief, and that much business was transacted is evidenced by adjournment at 10:05 p.m.

Mr. Grogg succeeded Mr. Leslie as secretary, the latter pleading pressure of work in his present office as editor of the Daily.

The Board is unanimous in its desire to produce a work worthy of the attention of students of all faculties and years, if not, indeed, of the perusal of the Professoriate.

Any students wishing to direct their artistic or literary energies into a proper channel are requested to communicate with the representatives of their faculties on the Board. Suitable suggestions will be hailed with satisfaction by all members of the Editorial Staff.

PRINCETON DECIDES TO NUMBER PLAYERS

A feature new to Princeton football will be introduced this season by the football management. This will be the numbering of the players on the field for purposes of identification. Each player will wear on the back of his jersey a number to correspond with his number on printed cards which will be handed out at the gate. The spectators will thus be enabled to recognize a man simply by reference to these cards. The numbers have been ordered and will be used for the first time in the Bucknell game this Saturday.

The plan to number the players was advocated and discussed at Princeton last year, but no action was taken toward putting it through. This year, however, the management has taken up the project and gotten it well under way, and if it proves a success it will be used throughout the season. This scheme was used last year by the Navy, eleven, and is being taken up this fall by Harvard and Pennsylvania; but this is the first season that it has been put through at Princeton.

THE MILITARY HAPPENINGS AT OLD MCGILL

LETTER WRITTEN TO DEAN ADAMS BY HUGH-JONES

Extract From the Letter of a Graduate of Science 1913

EXTRACT FROM LETTER.

Chatham, England, September 20, 1914.

"I was to have gone to India in July, but at the last minute the Government held up all the money for the scheme, and so I looked around for another post and was very lucky in getting one as assistant engineer for the Nigerian Government railways, and was to have sailed on August 12th. I had bought my equipment and twelve months' provisions, which one has to take out, when this war started, so I went to the Crown Agents for the Colonies to get him to set it aside so that I could join some branch of the army. He was actually good over it and promised me the appointment of a similar one after the war was over. Then I applied for a commission in the Royal Engineers, but after waiting about three weeks with no success, joined the 2nd King Edward Horse as a trooper (that is, the overseas regiment) and was with them in camp for ten days—a very nice lot of fellows—fully 60 per cent. very congenial companions. At the end of ten days I saw my name in the Gazette as having a commission (2nd Lieutenant) in the Royal Engineers. R. S. C. Trench got a similar commission in the same Gazette.

"There are two other McGill men here, too, a man named H. M. S. Houghton, from Mining '07, now in the Nigerian P. W. D., and Carus-Wilson, who was at McGill last session. We are all here in Chatham with the fifty other new R. E. officers, having a two-months' course in military engineering, and at the end of October leave to join our units in various parts of England, and some in Ireland. We all expect to go out in the spring, when the new army takes the field, so I hope it won't be over before then. Things are extraordinarily normal here in England, except for the newspapers, and seeing rather more men in uniform than usual, you would never suspect anything was happening out of the ordinary, though some businesses must be very badly hit.

"How splendidly all the colonies, especially Canada, have given their fullest support. This certainly ought to put an end to any more 'To the Day' in Germany."

DENTALS' OPENING LECTURE

Dental Department Officially Opened—Many Members of Faculty Present.

Yesterday afternoon the postponed official opening of the Dental Department took place at the Medical School. Several members of the Faculty were present including Dean Birkett, Dr. Thornton, Dr. Scane, Dr. Morrison, Dr. Cleveland, Dr. Jack, Dr. Stevenson and others. Dean Birkett presided at the progress made by the Department since the appointment of Dr. Thornton to the position of executive head. The Dean stated that he expected to visit all the various laboratories of the Medical College some time during the year and see the students actually at work.

Dr. Scane, Registrar of the Faculty, observed that the Faculty looked forward to a year of difficulty on account of the great war, and urged the students to bear with any inconveniences that might be inflicted upon them.

Dr. F. A. Stevenson, an old friend of Dental education in the city, addressed a few remarks of interest to the students. One of these was the offer of a gold medal to the senior student who showed greatest promise in the field of the Science and Practice of Dentistry.

Dr. Thornton spoke a few words on the value of esprit de corps and urged the men to take some part in college activities.

MILITARY FEVER RAPIDLY SPREADS

Report Taken From "The Varsity" Showing That a Military Spirit Is Abroad at Varsity

Something is going to happen at the mass meeting of the Engineering Society at 2.30 this afternoon. There is a general feeling current that the "School" ought to make a decision as to what part it is to play in this great military movement which has been so much in evidence on our campus of late. Do the Engineers intend to reorganize on the same basis as certain other faculties? Can the existing difficulties be overcome? Every student of the old red school house is vitally interested in the answers to these questions, and the Faculty have called off all labs and lectures.

A wave of military enthusiasm has gradually been gathering force, and it was thought wise that the meeting should be held in Convocation Hall, that the crowd which is certain to be present might be accommodated.

School means business. President Falconer, the University Military Committee, including Col. Laing, an engineer and the commanding officer of the district, and the Faculty professors will be present to confer with the men of the Engineering Society. With characteristic thoroughness, the matter will be handled, and the results will soon be in evidence.

Resignations have been received from the first vice-president of the Engineering Society and the corresponding secretary. There will be a motion to suspend constitution, and call for nominations for these positions.

Soccer has been made a major sport at Columbia. Since the abolition of football last year the proposition has undergone much discussion. Last week definite action was taken.

The State College of Washington has granted life passes to all athletic events on its home field to every letter man of the institution.

The University of California has sent personal letters to over four hundred high school track managers on the Pacific Coast, urging them to participate in their annual interscholastic meet.

MORE MCGILL MEN NOW FIGHTING SOME GONE IN FIRST CONTINGENT

"Fernie" Gendron, Henry Bate, Roberts Allan, A. Bostock, Barton Whiteside and Willis Thistle All Gone or Going to the Front

THOSE WITHOUT COMMISSIONS WENT AS PRIVATES

Short Accounts of Six McGill Men Who Have Gone to "Knock Der Kaiser" or at Least to Jar His Equanimity

FERNIE GENDRON

Joseph Ferdinand Edouard Gendron, as the militia lists put it, hails from Hull, Que., and is a son of F. A. Gendron, member of the Legislative Assembly. After studying at Ottawa College and at Ashbury College, Ottawa, "Fernie" entered R. M. C. in 1910. He graduated from Kingston last year, and last October became a member of Science '15, McGill. "Fernie" was seen in one or two games last season as outside wing with Shaughnessy's squad, and came to McGill with a reputation as a football player from R. M. C. He was also known as a basketball player of note. Being a member of the Reserve of Officers, consequently upon his graduation from R. M. C., "Fernie" answered Canada's call and left with the first contingent as lieutenant with No. 3 Company, Canadian Engineers.

HENRY N. BATE

Henry N. Bate, of Science '17, is one of McGill's undergraduates who have volunteered for active service. Bate is at present at Valcartier and expects to leave for the front shortly. When undergoing his medical examination, it was found that he was threatened with appendicitis, and for this reason the medical officers refused to accept him. Such was Bate's zeal for service, however, that he at once returned to his home in Ottawa and had the offending appendix removed. After recuperating he again proceeded to Valcartier, where he was this time more fortunate, being accepted for overseas service.

Bate is a product of Ashbury College, Ottawa, and while there served as an officer of the School Cadet Corps, considered the most efficient in the Ottawa Military District. He holds a commission in the 5th Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, Ottawa, and is well known as an equestrian. As such he has competed at the Olympia, London, and two years ago was a member of the team of Canadian officers sent by the Government to that widely known competition. He is a son of T. C. Bate, Ottawa.

J. ROBERTS ALLAN

J. Roberts Allan is another member of Science '17 who will doubtless soon be on the firing line. Like Bate, he comes from Ottawa, and also attended Ashbury College there. Later, he was a student at St. Andrew's College, Toronto. He is a son of John Roberts Allan, Ottawa. Allan went to the front with the 23rd Field Battery.

A. H. BOSTOCK

A. H. Bostock, a member of Science '15, is serving with the Canadian contingent as lieutenant in "A" Squadron, Lord Strathcona's Horse, commanded by Lt.-Col. A. C. Macdonell, D. S. O., the celebrated Canadian officer. He is a son of the Hon. Hewitt Bostock, Senator, and a graduate of R. M. C. with honours, with the class of 1913.

BARTON WHITESIDE AND WILLIS THISTLE

Two men from Arts '16 have gone to the front with the first contingent. These are A. Barton Whiteside and Willis Thistle. Both men are in the Army Medical Corps.

Whiteside is a Newfoundlander, hailing from Broad Cove, while Whiteside was born in Regina, but has lived for the past few years in Plaster Rock, New Brunswick. Last year he was a Squad Sergeant in the Rifle Club.

Both men were very popular in their class, and Arts '16 has every reason to be proud of its representatives at the front.

POOR SUPPORT FOR TORONTO'S PAPER

Bouquets For McGill Daily from Writer in "The Varsity's" Columns

Unless greatly increased support is received by the Varsity, the organ of the University of Toronto undergraduates, it is questionable if the newspaper will survive the present session. The support has become so feeble that it has been found necessary to issue an appeal through the columns of the newspaper.

"No paper, especially a University paper," says the Varsity, "can exist without subscriptions. After several days of earnest effort on the part of the business staff, the number of subscriptions is very meagre. Yet the price has been reduced to one dollar."

The advertising alone will not make the paper pay its way even if the forms could be filled with it.

"If McGill can run a splendid daily on account of unanimous support of the undergraduates, Toronto can at least uphold a tri-weekly. It is a matter of 'Is the Varsity to continue or not?' of University spirit."

FEW FRESHMEN FOR ANNUAL CANE SPREE

Activities at Princeton Meet with Poor Support From New Comers

Announcement is made that the annual Sophomore-Freshman Cane Spree at Princeton will take place on Thursday, November 12, the Thursday before the Yale game. The final trials will be held a week before.

The Cane Spree is a traditional contest, the descendant of the Sophomore-

Freshman cane rush of twenty years ago, held yearly on the grass plot north of Witherspoon.

The prestige won by Sophomores or Freshmen in the annual series of interclass rushes and contests depends largely on this event. The amount of competition for positions on the team and the class showing in the final event, are regarded as an index to class "pop." Class numerals are awarded the winners in each of the three weights.

In this event, as in other Freshman activities this year, lamentable lack of support from 1914 is evident. Two members of the twice-victorious 1913 team have been giving their time as coaches, afternoon and evening, for the past week. In spite of this but three Freshman candidates have turned out.

THE OTHER COLLEGES

A new side is likely to loom up on the Princeton Varsity. It will be that of P. D. Adams, who was tried at quarter on the scrubs. He ran his team so cleverly that the coaches spent some time watching his work alone.

Harvard's coaches are in good form already for the spreading of bear stories. Yesterday they released the information that Mahan, their star back-field performer, would be out of the game at least two weeks and possibly longer. He wrenched a leg last Saturday. This means he will not play against Michigan.

Prospects of Yale having a winning team this fall have brightened following the re-instatement to eligibility of Scoville and Guernsey. These two backs were placed on the scrubs in scrimmage yesterday and their forward passing, resulting in two touch-downs over the Varsity. Pumpily, playing at full-back for the scrubs, wrenched his ankle and will be out of the game some time.

Stanford spent but $4,556.45 in salaries, athletic upkeep, and repairs last year, out of gate receipts totalling some $25,000, according to the Daily Palo Alto. Of this the largest single ex-

ARTS JUNIORS HOLD MEETING

Officers Elected and Vacancy on Annual Board Filled

The first meeting for the year of Arts '16 was held on Tuesday. The class '16 has much reduced in numbers, only 56 being on the roll out of 148 who registered in the first year. Two men, Whiteside and Thistle, have left for England with the first contingent, while Murlon leaves on Saturday.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

A. B. Rosemary, vice-president.
C. J. Tidmarsh, president.
C. A. L. Hibbard, treasurer.
W. V. Howard, secretary.

A. P. Grigg was appointed to the place on the Annual Editorial Board, vacated by Auld.

penditure was for increasing the seating capacity of the bleachers, which cost $1,750. Turning the Cardinal baseball field was responsible for an expenditure of $407.

By voluntary action of the Freshman class, the traditional postage stamp will probably come into use again at the University of Washington. A ruling of the Faculty last year abolished the custom. This year's class, feeling that a badge of some sort should be worn, appear to strongly favor the time honored cap, and have obtained the approval of the Faculty.

Twenty-one members of the Freshman class of the University of Redlands recently tied up the eighteen Sophomores in the annual class rush at the Southern University. Twenty-two minutes elapsed, however, before the babes were able to tear down the flag from the Sophomores' greased pole.

Syracuse is to have a psychological laboratory for carrying on experimental work.

CONTRIBUTIONS MULTIPLY FROM MCGILL GRADS.

Letters Being Received Daily From McGill Graduates in All Parts—Appeal Nobly Answered

The following are several more replies which have been received in reply to the graduates' appeal to every McGill graduate for money with which to help the Canadian National Patriotic Fund.

Without doubt, the graduates are responding nobly, and if this kind of response continues, the fund should amount to be a considerable aid to the fund for which it is intended.

It. Rev. J. P. Sweeney, Bishop of Toronto, Ont.

"I hasten to respond to your communication, and very cheerfully enclose the amount asked for. I am very glad indeed that the graduates of old McGill are coming forward in this practical way at this critical time. Hoping your fund every success, and wishing that the reunion towards which we have been looking so long, will, after the declaration of peace, materialize, I am, faithfully yours."

A. H. Coleman, Tacoma, Wash.

"We have organized a British-American Benevolent Society here. Dr. G. C. Wayne is president—a McGill graduate. We have raised, and are raising funds by subscription which

ARTS SENIORS ELECTED THEIR OFFICERS YEST.

Arts '15 held a class meeting yesterday morning, at which the officers for the year 1914-15 were elected. M. O'Halloran was chosen to lead the class during their senior year. R. A. Fraser was elected vice-president. V. E. Ducas and J. D. Belson were chosen to fill the positions of secretary and treasurer respectively. J. A. Abbott was placed on the senior play committee to fill the place left vacant by the temporary absence from college of Z. H. Robertson. P. S. Clark was unanimously chosen to captain the class football team.
